Two Physicians Named to the Arizona Medical Board

(Scottsdale, AZ) -- Governor Jan Brewer has appointed James Gillard, M.D. and Harold Magalnick, M.D. as the two newest board members to the Arizona Medical Board.

Dr. Gillard, who has been licensed in Arizona since 1977, is Board Certified in Emergency Medicine practicing at three hospitals in the Tucson area. Dr. Magalnick was licensed in 1978 and is Board Certified in Pediatrics with a practice in the Phoenix area.

The Arizona Medical Board has 12 members composed of eight physicians and four public members, one of whom must be a registered nurse. The members of the Board are appointed by the Governor and are confirmed by the State Senate.
